Re: United States of America v. Diego Fernando Munilla Rojarana, et al.
Case No. 1:03-cr-01188-RMB-1

Your Honor:

We represent Ms. Alba Inés Rendón Galvis ("Ms. Rendón") who, by motion filed today with the Court, has moved to enforce her rights under the Crime Victims' Rights Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3771 (the "CVRA"), in the above-referenced matter. We fax this letter in response to a request by Clerk of this Court, Lucas Moskowitz, to explain to the Court the time sensitivity of Ms. Rendón's motion.

The Defendant in this matter is currently scheduled to be sentenced by this Court on February 24, 2009. Although Rules 60 and 32(i)(4)(B) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure require no advance notice by a victim in order to be heard in connection with a sentencing, inasmuch as the Government has disputed Ms. Rendón's right to be heard, we respectfully submit that this motion should be resolved prior to the Defendant's sentencing hearing.

Very truly yours,
